

Bristol Bay Watershed Assessment

Public Comment FTP Site Instructions for the Peer Reviewers

Peer review panel members may access the public comments and transcripts of public hearing testimony received on the Bristol Bay Watershed Assessment via a dedicated FTP site. The materials posted to the FTP site are the same as the documents publically-available at regulations.gov – the FTP site and accompanying summary tables simply make these comments more easily accessible. Please note that this FTP site is intended for use by the peer reviewers, and the access information below (including web address and password) should not be distributed to other parties.

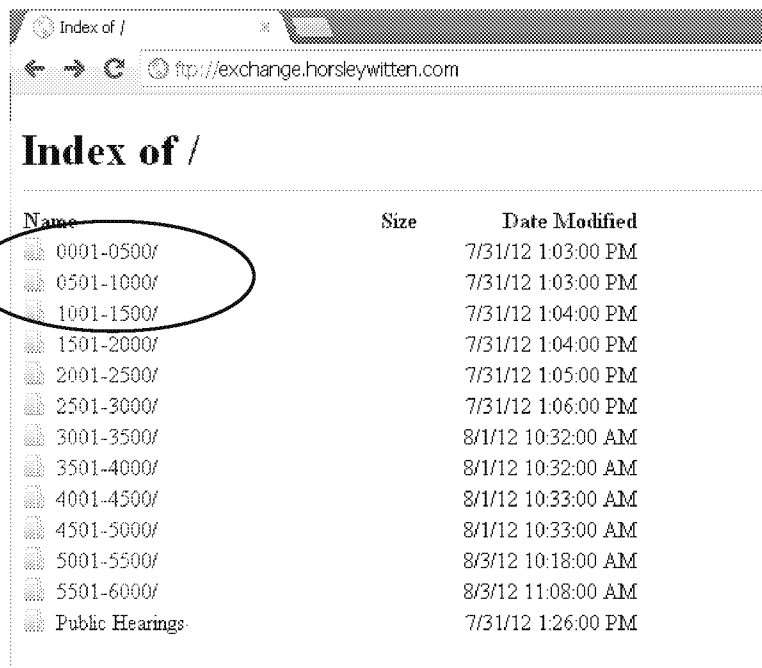

To access the FTP site please visit the following web address:
<ftp://exchange.horsleywitten.com>.

When prompted to enter a username and password, use the following information:

Username: BristolBay2012

Password: 120731Comments

Upon entering the site you will see a screen similar to this:

Clicking on one of the .pdf files will open the document. Letters submitted with multiple attachments are indicated with a .1, .2, etc. following the file number (e.g., file 0001 has an attachment 0001.1).

The following summary tables also have been posted to the FTP site, to help peer reviewers locate specific comments of interest:

- Table of All Comments – This table includes all written comments received on the draft Assessment in numerical order by document number, which can be used to locate comment letters on the FTP site. This table also includes the name and organization (if available) of each commenter.
- Table of Comments by Organization – Some commenters identified an affiliation with an organization; this table sorts comments alphabetically by organization. The accompanying document number can be used to locate files on the FTP site.
- Table of Mass Mailing Campaigns – Several organizations sponsored mass mailing campaigns to provide comments on the draft assessment. This table includes the document number, sponsoring organization for each campaign (if known), and the number of times the letter was received.
- Table of Speakers from Public Meetings – Oral comments were also received on the draft Assessment at a series of public meetings and documented in transcripts. This table, organized alphabetically by the first name of each speaker, identifies the hearing location of the testimony, which can be used to locate the transcript under the “Public Hearings” folder on the FTP site.
